Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Information Disclosure Statement

2. The prior art documents submitted by the applicant in the Information Disclosure Statement filed on January 23, 2006 have all been considered and made of record (note the attached copy of form PTO-1449).

Specification

3. Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

4. The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because it exceeds the 150-word limit.

Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

5. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

6. Claims 1-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Art Unit: 2874

7. The claims are generally narrative and indefinite, failing to conform with current U.S. practice. They appear to be a literal translation into English from a foreign document and are replete with grammatical and idiomatic errors.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

8. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

9. Claims 1-4 and 6-11 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Doi et al. (U.S. Patent Application Publication 2003/0147591).

10. Regarding claims 1-4. Doi et al. discloses a waveguide optical device 1 comprising a substrate 2; a waveguide 3 formed on the substrate, functional optical waveguides 3c and 3d formed in the optical waveguide, input and output end faces, an input optical waveguide 3a, an output optical waveguide 3e wherein the output optical waveguide is formed at an angle other than 0 with the functional optical waveguides at the output end face so as to make an angle with the substrate end face that is different from 90°. Doi et al. further discloses a package case (housing, ¶[0197]).

11. Regarding claims 6-11, it appears that the angle of light incident to or emitted from the substrate inherently meets the claimed limitation.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

12. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

Art Unit: 2874

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

13. Claims 5 and 12-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Doi et al. Doi et al. does not expressly disclose a monomode optical fiber provided in the vicinity of the input or output face. However, waveguide devices optically coupled to monomode optical fibers are well known in the art. Therefore, the modification to provide a monomode optical fiber in the vicinity of the input or output face would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art for the purpose of providing low loss transmission to and from the device of Doi et al.

Conclusion

14. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).
